BACKWARD PARTY IS AMUSING

One of the most novel of recent parties was held at American Legion club house Monday evening when American Legion Auxiliary members entertained the National Business and Professional Women of Torrance at a backward party with Mrs. Virginia Scott as chairman. Auxiliary members and their guests were suitably dressed for the occasion with many amusing costumes in evidence. Following a grand march, Miss Edna Schmidt of the N. B. P. W. was awarded a prize for the most unique costume. Tables were set with inverted cups, saucers and silver, while pansies were arranged face down in small vases. Refreshments of upside down cake and coffee were served and stunt bridge and figwag puzzles were enjoyed for the balance of the evening. Mrs. Gladys Hollerback, with the lowest score, was presented with first prize, while Mrs. Fitzgerald of Wilmington, having a high score, received a consolation. Mrs. Olive Lee received an award for finishing her puzzle first.

MANDARIN BALLROOM GETTING FOR PARTY

One of the most successful dancing parties held recently was a St. Patrick's party sponsored by the Nativity club and held at Mandarin ballroom, Redondo Beach, Friday evening, March 17. Green badges were worn by members of the party and green and white hats and toy balloons were distributed.

CLUB PARTY IS ENJOYED

Members of the One-Hundred-One Social Club met at the home of Mrs. Ernest L. Emenegger, 1636 Arlington avenue, Monday evening. Bridge furnished entertainment for the occasion and Misses Betty Schmidt and Bernice Kroeger received awards for high score, while Miss Edith Overman was presented with a consolation. Other guests included Misses Elizabeth Perry, Ann and Maria Storey, Virginia Eggleton, Ruth Ware and Mrs. Nina Smith. Refreshments were served at tables attractively decorated in yellow, accenting an Easter motif.

SEWING CLUB MEETS

Members of the Friendship Club were entertained at the home of Mrs. W. W. Woodington Tuesday evening. The ladies sewed during the evening and refreshments were served by the hostess.

NATIONAL SUPPLY GIRLS AT DANCING PARTY

More than 200 attended the annual dance sponsored by the National Supply Girls' Club, held at Hollywood Riviera Beach Club Saturday evening. An attractive feature of the affair was a waltz contest won by Miss Hazel Hinman and Dean Whisler, who were presented with a silver cup. Included on the committee were Misses Connie Brandt, Ann Wilson and Ann Beilly. Proceeds of the dance will be used by the club for their welfare fund. Music for the dance was furnished by an eight-piece orchestra.

MRS. SHRINER ENTERTAINS CLUB

Members of the Tuesday Afternoon Club enjoyed a delightful afternoon when Mrs. Lillian Shriner entertained with a luncheon and bridge at Los Angeles this week. Covers were placed for Mesdames O. E. Fossum, John Dennis, W. W. West, J. O. Moore, Archer Lewis, J. H. Fess, Mae Riebotham, Fred Knudson, J. F. Dalton, R. L. McFarland, V. L. Maxfield and the hostess. Bridge awards were received by Mrs. Dalton and Mrs. Fess, while Mrs. McFarland received a consolation.

INVITED TO SIERRA MADRE

Members of Torrance chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, have been invited by the Social Club of the Sierra Madre chapter to attend "Eastern Star" Day on March 30 at the Wistaria Fete at Sierra Madre. Mrs. Agnes Tyree, president of the Sierra Madre club, in her invitation to Mrs. Carrie Parks of Torrance, states that attendance on March 30 will be of direct benefit to the Sierra Madre group, as a portion of the gate receipts will be paid to them that day.

The widely known fete, called the "First of the Fiestas," has become a community festival, and this year has in addition an open-air, under cover, flower show at the huge old vine, with afternoon tours of lovely gardens of the foothill city.

A luncheon, at which Mrs. Grace Richardson Butterfield, worthy grand matron of California, is the invited honored guest, will be served to members under the spread of the famous canopy that has made the vine famous for many years. It is understood that reservations may be made up to March 25 through Mrs. C. H. Sandage, 168 West Highland, phone Sierra Madre 252-2.

Torrance chapter O. E. S. members and friends were told today that the easiest way to the scene of the fete is by way of Foothill boulevard from Pasadena or by Valley and Foothill boulevards from San Gabriel Valley points. The fete will run for three weeks and starts March 17, St. Patrick's Day.

SCOUT MOTHERS MEET MONDAY

Scout Mothers' Auxiliary of Troop No. 3 will meet at the home of Mrs. Fred Hansen for the regular business and social meeting Monday evening, March 27. Mrs. Sylvia Nelson will assist Mrs. Hansen as co-hostess. All members are cordially invited. Election of officers will be held at this time. The card party which was planned for last Wednesday has been postponed until further notice.

JUDGE LAHEY IS SPEAKER

Judge May D. Lahey, delegate at large of the executive board of the California Federation of National Business and Professional Women's clubs, was the speaker of the evening at the March dinner meeting of the local club held Tuesday evening at the Christian church.

Forty-five members and guests listened with increasing amusement to Judge Lahey's witty exposition of the history of women's activities and her long struggle to take her place on a par with men in business, interspersed with a few telling remarks about the follies of men and their attitudes toward women. Men guests enjoyed Judge Lahey's exposure of their weak points fully as much as did the women in the group, and modestly accepted the credit she gave them for their virtues.

The musical program for this meeting was provided by Paul Gilliam, tenor soloist, who played his own guitar accompaniment; Miss Wanda Stachowicz, who sang Schubert's "Serenade" in German, and "Amapola" in Spanish, with piano accompaniment played by Mme. Teala Billini, who completed this part of the program with two solos, Viennese Waltz, and Chopin's Raindrop Prelude.

Mrs. Margaret Hutchins, chairman of public relations committee, introduced the speaker and entertainers. Guests for the evening included Mayor and Mrs. W. T. Klusman, Dr. N. A. Leake, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Reinertson, Harry Dean, Miss Vivian Young, Clinton B. Young, Mr. Williams, Miss Ruby Geary of Redondo Beach, Mrs. Nellie B. Fassfield of Los Angeles, Mrs. Roxie Sleeth, Mrs. Mae McKinley, W. E. Bowen, Sig Shoberg and Mrs. Phoebe J. Milburn. A new member, Mrs. Bertha Martin, attended for the first time.

GIRLS ENJOY ST. PATRICK'S PARTY

Hazel Burchett entertained a group of her friends with an enjoyable St. Patrick's party at her home on Arlington avenue Saturday afternoon. Games were enjoyed and refreshments were served at a table attractively decorated for the occasion. Included were Marilyn Meyer, Joyce Robinson, Dorothy Lettz, Anna and Helen Bay, Wesla Toler and the hostess.

O. E. S. MEETS AT SAN PEDRO

The joint meeting of Wilmington, Torrance, San Pedro Harbor and Point Firmin chapters, O. E. S., in honor of the official visit of the worthy grand matron of the state of California, Grace Richardson Butterfield, which was to have been at the Masonic hall in Wilmington will be held at the chapter room of Pt. Firmin chapter, West 10th street, San Pedro. The dinner at 6:00 o'clock will be held at Hacienda La Rambla, Third street, San Pedro.

Mrs. Fern Early, James Slover, Bob Barker and Sam Robinson received the quilts and comforts made by the ladies of the Veterans' Relief and awarded at the dance held at American Legion club house Thursday evening. Another of the dances will be held at American Legion club house this evening, Thursday, March 23. Everyone is invited.

DINNER BRIDGE CLUB MEETS

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Rippey entertained at a bridge dinner at their home on Cota avenue Friday evening. A St. Patrick's motif was used throughout decorations and menu and cut flowers were used for the table at which covers were arranged for Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Huber, Mr. and Mrs. F. McGuire, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan of Los Angeles and the hostess. Bridge awards were received by Mrs. Morgan and Mr. Rippey.

SUMMERS ENTERTAIN AT EVENING PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Summers entertained with an enjoyable St. Patrick's party at their home on Acacia avenue Friday evening. Green glassware and accessories were used and cards furnished entertainment for the occasion and the cluded were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Santerhoff, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Paterson, Mrs. L. H. Cheadle, L. P. and Mrs. George Isaacs of Redondo Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Sasina of Los Angeles. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

BIRTHDAY DINNER AT LOS ANGELES

The 16th birthday anniversary of Patrick Henry Sullivan, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Sullivan of 736 Border avenue, provided the incentive for a birthday dinner Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dailey at Los Angeles. Green and white were carried out in accessories and decorations and a birthday cake having 16 candles was served. Included were the honoree and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Sullivan, Mrs. John Sullivan of Hamilton, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dailey and children, Mary Ellen and Charles.

DINNER AND PINOCCHLE PARTY

Burglar Ransacks Palos Verdes Home

During the absence of Ruth French Hough, from her home at 4013 Via Gavilan, Palos Verdes Estates, yesterday between 10 a. m. and 3 p. m., unknown parties gained entrance through an unlocked window and ransacked the house. A loaded revolver was the only thing of value that was reported missing. Fingerprints on a metal box were photographed by officers from the sheriff's office as a possible clue. The case was reported to sub-station No. 3 in charge of this section.
